

Upcoming Elephantopia

Events

Upcoming Events & Volunteer Opportunities

April 19, 2019: CONSERVATION CONVERSATIONS

is a new lecture series in Arizona hosted by Elephantopia. The series is free and open to the public. Our first speaker is Henry Mwape from the Zambian Carnivore Programme.

He will be presenting at the South Tempe Rotary Club at 7am on April 19 and then again at Arizona State University in the Life Sciences E Building (LSE) room 232 for a lunch hour presentation followed by a Q&A session from 11:30a-12:30p. FREE Dominos pizza will be provided. For more information, please email Elizabeth Schrank today.

April 20, 2019: CONSERVATION CONVERSATIONS continues with Henry Mwape at the Phoenix Zoo from 9:30-10:30am. Free cookies and refreshments will be provided. For more information, please email Elizabeth Schrank today.

August 10-11, 2019: World Elephant Day

This year, Elephantopia will be hosting events in VA, TX and AZ. Stay tuned for details.

November 2, 2019: Can't Tu5K This

Can't Tu5K This is Elephantopia's inaugural virtual race, geared and designed for runners from every corner of the globe and the United States. Every year, Elephantopia seeks to elevate its mission by not only raising funds, but to get people engaged in our mission.

All funds will go to support Game Rangers International, Kavala (our orphan elephant Elephantopia supports in Zambia), Elephantopia's mission. Join Elephantopia for its inaugural 5K race to raise funds for our cause: Save Elephants and Build Community. <https://www.elephantopia.org/can-t-tu5k-this>